Week of April 5: Making Disciples of All Nations

How does a ministry developed in West Michigan find so much success around the world? Tune in this week to hear CBI's international coordinators, Sandra Chang Raak and Jacob Busscher, discuss how Crossroad's program addresses human needs that are universal to every continent and culture. Go to www.cbi.tv to watch this week's Crossroad Connection!

Week of April 12: A Politician's Perspective on Prison Reform

Should people still "do time" even after their release from prison? Former state representative Joe Haveman reveals the progress being made in the realm of criminal justice reform. Go to www.cbi.tv to watch this week's Crossroad Connection!

Week of April 19: Helping Kids Find Christ in Chaos

This week, Dr. Marv Vander Vliet, the boys' ministry director of West Michigan Youth for Christ's Juvenile Justice Ministry, explains how establishing relationships with youths in juvenile detention centers can help them develop a firm foundation in Christ in the face of chaos. Go to www.cbi.tv to watch this week's Crossroad Connection!

Week of April 26: Are All Americans Treated Equally in Court?

The right to a fair trial should be available to everyone, regardless of their economic status. Jonathan Sacks, executive director of the Michigan Indigent Defense Commission, addresses the ways that the current defense system is failing and how the commission plans to enact improvement. Go to www.cbi.tv to watch this week's Crossroad Connection!

We are grateful for your partnership in the Gospel! If you would prefer to receive the monthly announcements via email, please forward your request to amy@crossroadbible.org. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact us by calling 800-668-2450.
