

Personal Discussion Questions:

1. Read Isaiah 7. Summarize the following points in your own words:

Who is king?

What is the imminent threat?

What is Isaiah's counsel?

What does Isaiah predict as a sign of God's promise?

2. Read Isaiah 8:11-15. In what ways will God be a "rock of stumbling to both houses of Israel, a trap and a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem."? (hint- cf. Matthew 21:43-46)

3. Read Isaiah 9:6. What event is Isaiah prophesying and predicting? From what you've learned and read so far, what is the significance of such a prophecy for the people of Isaiah's day? For us today?

4. Notice the word pair, "justice-righteousness" in 9:7. Where have we seen this before? What is the significance of a king, in the line of David, who will reign in this way?

5. What are you waiting and hoping for? How does being on this side of redemptive history encourage your waiting and hoping? What is one practical way this week you can wait, hope and fear God?

Personal Discussion Questions:

1. Read Isaiah 7. Summarize the following points in your own words:

Who is king?

What is the imminent threat?

What is Isaiah's counsel?

What does Isaiah predict as a sign of God's promise?

2. Read Isaiah 8:11-15. In what ways will God be a "rock of stumbling to both houses of Israel, a trap and a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem."? (hint- cf. Matthew 21:43=46)

3. Read Isaiah 9:6. What event is Isaiah prophesying and predicting? From what you've learned and read so far, what is the significance of such a prophecy for the people of Isaiah's day? For us today?

4. Notice the word pair, "justice-righteousness" in 9:7. Where have we seen this before? What is the significance of a king, in the line of David, who will reign in this way?

5. What are you waiting and hoping for? How does being on this side of redemptive history encourage your waiting and hoping? What is one practical way this week you can wait, hope and fear God?