FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS ABOUT SERVING

G.E.O. kidz is a midweek ministry for boys and girls in grades 1-5. Our focus is on personal Christian growth, friendship, service outreach, and evangelism. Our desire is that kids would come to know, love, and follow the Lord Jesus Christ and would seek to share the gospel with their friends.

When does G.E.O. kidz meet? We meet 2x/month on Thursdays from 7:00-8:15 pm, beginning in mid-September and going through mid-May each year. A calendar will be posted on the website each year with meeting dates.

Who can serve at G.E.O. kidz?

Parents, grandparents, people without children in GEO kidz (married and single) are encouraged to serve.

What are some ways I can be involved with G.E.O kidz?

- Small Group Leader at GEO meetings (2x/month)
- Small Group Helper (2x/month)
- Small Group parent helper (assisting 2x/year)
- Assist at our Boys' Game Nights or Girls' Craft Nights (approx. 4x/year)
- Assist at our "Service Saturdays" with set-up, clean-up, bringing materials, working with children, etc. (approx. 1x/month)

Do I have to be a member of Parkside Church to serve at G.E.O. kidz?

You do not have to be a member; however, we do ask that you have been in regular attendance at Parkside for a minimum of 6 months. Anyone who serves at G.E.O. kidz must complete a church testimony application and a background check (workers 18+ years of age).

If you'd like to be involved or have additional questions about serving, please contact Kelly Coy at kcoy@parksidechurch.com.
