

Romans Discussion Questions
Romans 8:18-30

Getting things started

What is hard for you personally? What is hard about your situation? Where are you groaning? How does this passage inform both of these dynamics?

Discussion questions

How does Paul describe creation in verses 19-22? How does the analogy of verse 22 heighten what he says about creation?

What are Christians waiting for, and how are we to wait for it? (Hint: cf. 7:24, 8:11)

Read Romans 8:28. How does the surrounding context of verses 29-30 shed light on this oft-quoted verse?

For your consideration and application

How will you remember the glory you are heading to? How will your groanings transform you and your view of life?
