

Questions Week of 11/10/2014

Conclusion of the I Am Study

1. Read John's Prologue (Jn 1:1-18) again. How has this semester's study of the I Am Statements changed your thinking about or helped you understand John's Prologue? What are the similarities between John's Prologue and Jesus High Priestly Prayer in John 17? Why are they important?

2. Jesus used several different themes to communicate in his I Am Statements: Bread, Light Shepherd, Life, Way, Vine .Why do you think Jesus used such a diversity of themes. What similarities do you see? Which theme(s) impacted you the most?

3. How has this study help prepare you to share the gospel with others? How has your perception or knowledge of Jesus changed from this semester's study? Has your understanding of the Gospel been impacted by this study? If so, how?

4. How does knowledge of the Old Testament help in understanding the I Am Statements of Jesus? How does this semester's study help you answer the objection "Jesus never claimed to be God?"

5. What was the most surprising or clarifying thing you discovered in this study regarding:
 - a. Christ
 - b. The Gospel
 - c. The Disciples
 - d. Yourself