

Parents, for the Story Time Rhyme, if you are not comfortable with your child touching his/her face, you can encourage him or her to point instead.

Story Time Rhyme

Touch your shoulders, touch your chin;
Story Time is about to begin!
Touch your head, touch your nose;
Bend your knees, and touch your toes!
Sit down on the floor with a loud
CLAP!
Fold your hands, put them in your lap;
Eyes on me, so that I can see
Everyone is listening quietly.

Our Letter of the Day is G. G is for God. What other words start with the letter G?

Our Story: God is Always Good by Tama Fortner; illustrated by Veronica Vasylenko

Parents: there are many Bible verse references in this book, some of which I did not read as I was reading the story. If you would like to read these verses to your child, scroll to the end to see the list.

Bunny Card Craft: This simple bunny "card" can be made with paper, crayons/markers, glue or glue sticks you have in your home. I didn't have colored construction paper, pom poms, squiggly eyes, or pipe cleaners, but I think my bunny card is still cute! Instead of writing "Happy Easter" on the inside of the card, I wrote, "God is always Good" to remind me that no matter how I feel and no matter what happens, God is always with me and He is always good.

Parents: if your child is learning to use scissors, encourage him or her to cut out the bunny pieces.

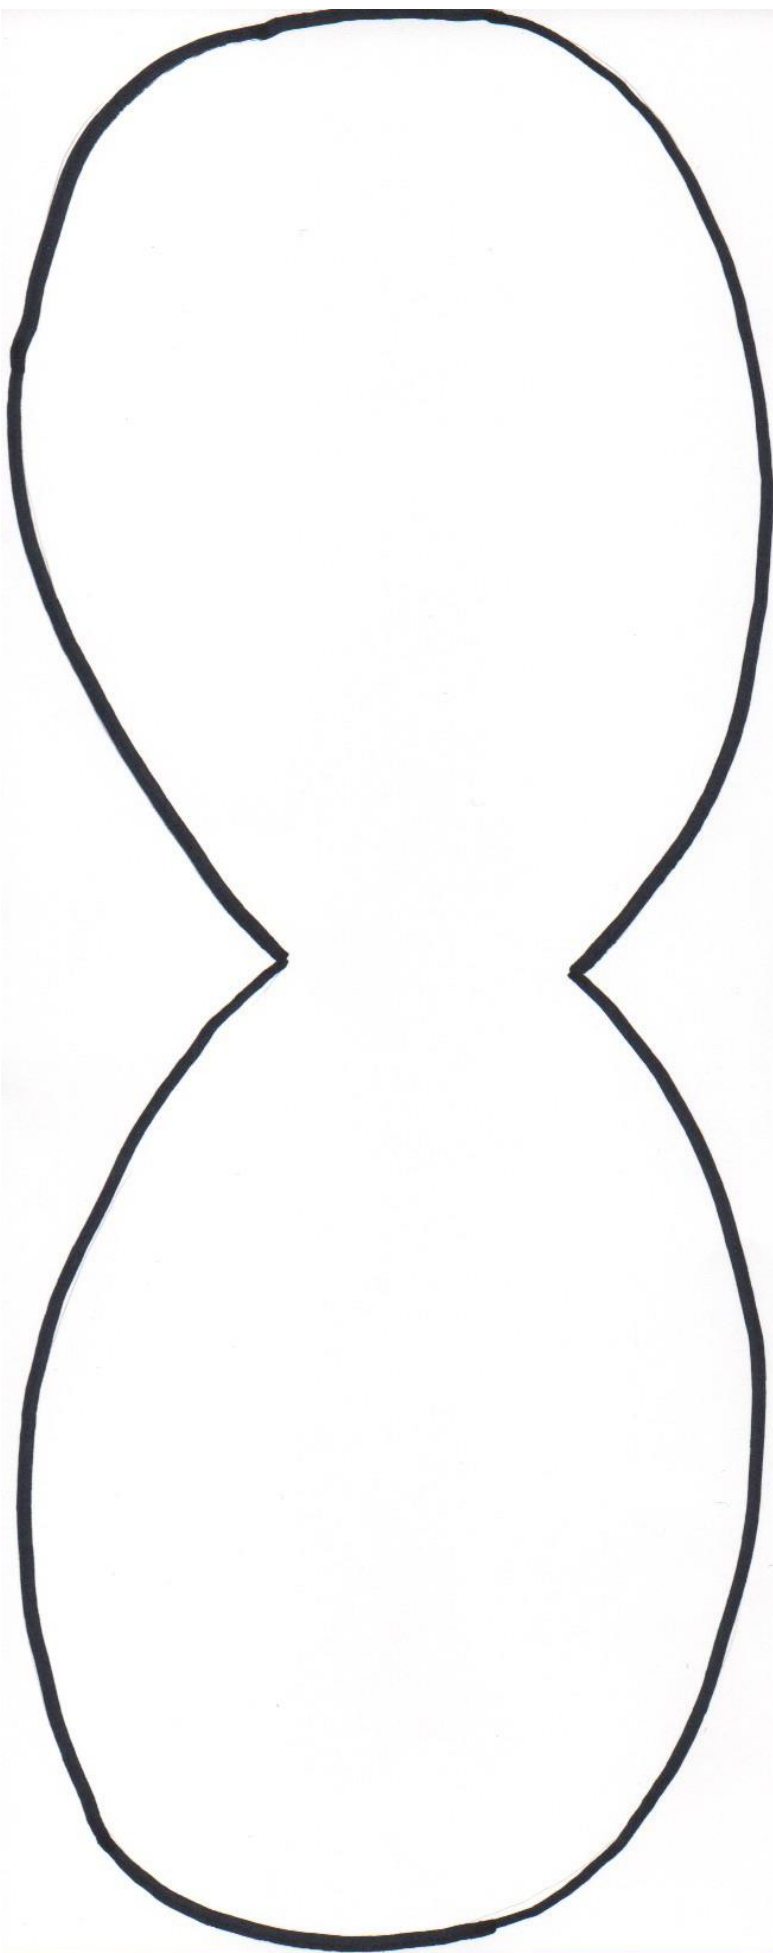

Remember: the "body" of the bunny should NOT be cut through the middle. This is where the card is folded, and it must stay in one piece.

(if you do not feel confident in your sketching abilities to draw the bunny pieces, use the printable on page 2)

Keep the card on your child's dresser or nightstand as a reminder that God is always good.

Suggested Snack: Graham crackers and Grape Juice
